

MARIPOSA LEADERSHIP, INC. ADDS TO TEAM OF EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP COACHES

Toma Ramirez and Robert Weinberg bring their unique experience and expertise to Mariposa Leadership, Inc. as the demand for executive leadership coaching remains strong.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Francisco, CA – October 1, 2014 – Mariposa Leadership, Inc. is pleased to convey that companies continue to ramp up their investment in leadership development, including executive coaching and team-based skill building. In keeping with demand, Mariposa Leadership is once again expanding its coach base. A longtime leader in the Bay Area executive coaching industry, Mariposa Leadership continues to provide a strong core team of select coaches and consultants. Two new Executive Leadership Coaches have been thoroughly vetted and are already achieving results and receiving rave reviews from clients.

Toma Ramirez co-founded three businesses, sold one, and has consulted to more than twenty Fortune 500 companies spanning a 20-year entrepreneurial career. He knows the challenges senior level executives face daily in their super charged, highly competitive environments -- challenges that often distract them, complicate their vision, and muddle their paths to effective leadership, performance, and productivity. Communicating with corporate leaders and building trust comes naturally to Toma, and this thought partnership leads to more client business success. Recent clients include Directors to CEOs at California Clean Technologies, CareerNav, Nobel Profit, and T.Rowe Price. Toma holds a B.A. in Business Management from Georgia St. University, is a Certified Integral Coach® through New Ventures West and is well trained in conflict management and negotiation.
